

Earth to Emily (Emily 2, WDKY 6) by Pamela Fagan Hutchins
Discussion Questions (SPOILER ALERT)

1. What is the essential internal conflict that Emily has to overcome in this book?
2. What implications does the author make about feminine appearance and allure?
3. What is your reaction to the author's take on Apache mythology and the animal world?
4. How do current events about race and police officers impact your reading of this book?
5. Can you forgive Jack for keeping secrets?
6. How did you feel about the re-entrance of Ava into Emily's life?
7. There were three big surprises in the last two chapters. Were they believable? Discuss.
8. Was the mystery believable/authentic, given Emily and her role?
9. Were the action scenes believable/authentic?
10. What is the author saying about organized religion in this book? Immigration? Sexual identity? Race?